

WESTSIDE MUSIC FESTIVAL

SEPTEMBER 25, 2010 2:00 - 6:00 PM

WESTSIDE MUSIC FESTIVAL FACT SHEET

WHAT: The Westside Music Festival benefiting Resolana. Enjoy an afternoon of live music, food and interactive activities for the entire family. Browse through a silent auction and participate in activities that replicate those done with inmates including Yoga, dance and doll making.

WHEN: Saturday, September 25 from 2pm to 6pm

WHERE: 300 Singleton Avenue in West Dallas

Just minutes from downtown, the First Annual Westside Music Festival will take place in this 40,000 square foot lime green warehouse overlooking the Trinity River on Singleton Avenue. Join us in Dallas' Westside, this newly renovated area of Dallas which is located next to Dallas' newest landmark, the Margaret Hunt Hill Bridge, scheduled to open in mid-2011. Be sure to look for Santiago Pena's sculpture, Children under the Umbrella. We are located directly across the street.

WHO: Resolana is a non-profit agency dedicated to improving the lives of incarcerated women. Our mission is simple: to educate and empower incarcerated women.

Resolana builds a safe and challenging learning community behind the walls of the criminal justice system, where women can use their time in custody to acquire the skills, tools and resources for a positive reintegration into the lives of their families and communities.

BANDS: Headliner, Melinda Wood Allen is a local singer/songwriter; Mark McKenzie Jazz Quartet and Castiel.

COMMITTEE: Chaired by Fran Tynan, this year's event would not be possible without the hard work and dedication of many volunteers.

RESOLANA

to educate and empower incarcerated women